

BLEED

INSIDE MARGIN

A diagram illustrating page margins. It consists of three concentric rectangular borders. The outermost border is pink and is labeled 'BLEED' at the top center. Inside this is a black border. The innermost border is green and is labeled 'INSIDE MARGIN' at the top center. The area between the black and green borders represents the standard margin, while the area between the pink and black borders represents the bleed area.